WHEN TO VISIT & NORTHERN LIGHTS FACTS

- Northern Lights Season: from September to April
- Northern Lights are most often seen between 18:00 (6pm) and 02:00 (2am)
- Northern Lights might be visible for a couple of minutes or for most of the evening.
- Northern Lights outbursts visible from Tromsø are mainly green, but large outbursts can also include other colours.

WHY TROMSØ

- Tromsø is located in the middle of the earth's Northern Lights Belt, which gives us good chances of Northern Lights, regardless of the sun's cycles.
- Tromsø has a milder costal climate, due to the Gulf Stream, which makes even the middle of winter mild (average temp. Jan -4 degrees Celsius)
- Tromsø is a compact city with short distances between a wide variety of good facilities for accommodation, attractions, dining and night life
- Tromsø has a welcoming attitude to visitors, both historically and as a modern, rapidly-growing city as the capital of the Arctic.
- Tromsø is surrounded by and has easy access to stunning nature
- Troms has more than 70 Northern Lights activities
- Tromsø has excellent flight connections to Oslo (Gardemoen), as well as good connections to overseas destinations such s as London (Gatwick) and Stockholm.

WHICH NORTHERN LIGHTS TOUR TO CHOOSE?

TWO TYPES

1. Northern Lights Chases:

These excursions go in search of the best possible place on any given night to find clear sky and then the Northern Lights. If you are in a hurry and don't mind getting back late, then these are a good option.

2. Northern Lights Experiences:

These activities go to one dark, scenic and comfortable location where you have good chances of seeing the Northern Lights, and at the same time can try exciting and interesting activities or experience some North Norwegian culture

Choose the tour that best suits you, based on duration, price, group size and what is included.

Northern Lights Experiences are activities that offer that bit of extra adventure to your Arctic experience. It's as if the nature in the Tromsø region was especially created for outdoor adventures. Sami families, experienced mushers, dedicated photographers, Arctic artists and other like-minded nature and Northern Lights enthusiasts are waiting to welcome you into their Arctic world.

The Arctic evening can offer everything from crackling cold snow under a starry sky, which is becoming a rare sight in a world of ever increasing artificial lighting, to wild gusts of wind that will leave you breathless and in even greater awe of the forces of nature. And amidst these, the greatest adventure of them all suddenly appears: the Northern Lights.

NORTHERN LIGHTS VISITS
